Celebrate 2018 Chinese Lantern Festival Annual Traditional Chinese Hot Pot Dinner

ErHu Performing Arts, Presented by Liping Woods

Liping Woods, grew up in Chongqing, China and learned to play Erhu (Chinese Violin) at age 12. Liping came to the United States in 1991 pursuing graduate studies, and is an IT professional.

Traditional Chinese Hot Pot Dinner

The style of eating hot pot is similar to Western fondue. Each person at the table chooses his or her favorite cuisine including thin sliced beef, shrimp, meat balls, mushrooms, bamboo shoots, tofu, noodles, vegetables and more....and dips it in the boiling, tasty broth using a pair of chopsticks (or a ladle if you haven't fully mastered the chopstick grip). After giving the food ample time to cook, just pluck the food back out of the hotpot and your meal is about to begin. These hot, savory, and flavor infused bites are then added with rice to give a perfect mixture of zest, texture, and pleasant warmth. For your desert, sesame sweet rice balls will be served in the celebration of the 2018 Chinese Lantern Festival.
